

CHANTAL BELOW

Global Practitioner, USA

below@exetorgroup.com

Chantal is an experienced leadership coach and facilitator whose skillful approach is grounded in adult development and transformative learning theories. This knowledge, combined with practical experience, deep curiosity about human sense-making, proven relationship-building skills, and inclusion of humor and levity in all engagements, enable her to incite lasting change in the leaders she supports.

Her work includes coaching senior leaders in the corporate, non-profit, and academic arenas. Chantal designs and facilitates team coaching engagements to dislodge groups and accelerate collective impact. She is also a speaker on topics related to women, power, and presence.

Degree and Certifications

- UC Berkeley, Haas School of Business, Berkeley, CA
- Georgetown University, College of Arts and Sciences, Washington, D.C.
- Certified Professional Co-Active Coach
- Certified Immunity to Change Facilitator
- LCP, Strength Deployment Inventory (SDI) Certified

Chantal's curiosity about people's stories and their motivations allows her to connect deeply and have impact with others. Chantal is based in Northern California where she lives with her husband and three children. She's known to be an avid seeker of new experiences, always open to a new hike, restaurant, friendship, or unexpected adventure.