

PHILIPP SPANNUTH

 Partner, GERMANY

 spannuth@exetor.com

A 7-year management consultant with McKinsey & Company and having 10 years of general management experience Philipp brings to Exetor a wide range of experience in the fields of leadership, organization and strategy. Philipp has a strong sense for leading teams, building business relations and providing first class service to his clients. It is Philipp's passion as a coach to work with professionals on bringing out their strengths and reaching their personal goals as well as helping them in contributing to their team's success.

Philipp has been an executive coach and leadership development consultant for clients in many different industries such as Marketing & Communication, Energy, Automotive, Pharma and Consulting. Prior to joining Exetor he worked 9 years as an entrepreneur and company executive, providing services in the media industry. As a management consultant Philipp Served clients in the financial industries on topics such as sales excellence, organizational development and strategy.

Degree and Certifications

- Certified business coach (DBVC and DVCT)
- M.A. in History, Economic History and Public Law from the University of Hamburg
- PHD in History which he earned at the Albert-Ludwig-University of Freiburg
- Hogan, Hogan 360, LCP, MBTI, NeuroColor Certified

As a coach, trainer and consultant Philipp can rely on the broad experiences of his previous roles. This combined with his strong interpersonal skills make him a highly valuable partner for his clients.